Visitors All Day.

Notwithstanding the immense crowd of three or four thousand people who crowded the Zuazar Hall to its utmost capacity for the opening occamonics of Wednesday hight, work was well under way at the different tables at 11 o'clock yesterday morning.

All during the day visitors came in and the sales up to the present have been unprecedentedly fine. The Louisiana table which had a thriving business at the soda water fountain Wednesday evening, had to send out an imperative order for the fresh prainnes made by "Aunt Sukey" of New Orleans, the first supply being quite exhausted.

Sents in Louisiana's roof garden were in dearmand last night. At this table a road cart has been donated to the chairman and will be sold at auction. Little St. Zuephs, the patron gaint of husbands, may always be found here.

Photographs from the miniature of General R. E. Lee, painted by the well-known artist, H. M. Loury, of Washington, D. C., are selling rapidly at the Dixle table. "Huneera," the Egyptian paimint, was exercising her mystic skill in casting horoscropes at this table last night. Popular articles of sale were the Aupanese wares, sent by the Jefferson Davis Chapter of Daughters from San Frincisco. The Gariand-Rodes, R. E. Lee and Pickett Veteran Camps have entered the contest for the beautiful flag sent from California and displayed here. The Kentucky table was very busy, Among the articles being disposed of were a Pickwick set of hand-painted menu cards, beautifully illustrated works by Kentucky authors, centre pieces, and orange marmalade, one among many good things sent Kentucky from New York, by Mr. Charles Dimmock, A spiendid silver punch bowl sent by the Cincinant Daughters of the Confederacy will be voted to the most popular member of the Elies. The baznar register, contributed by Mr. Walter Evans, of the Cogswell Company, of Charleston, S. C., is here. It is bound in red leather with the State seal on each page, All baznar workers and visitors will register their names and after the baznar the book will be placed in the Confederate museum. Mississippl was foremost in sales among the baznar tables. The King Baby's corner was percentibly denuded of its contents, Work bags, peanuts and homemade candy to say nothing of a shock from an electric battery, were vended by the pretty Dolly Vardens, who leaned on Mississippi's counter.

Medailion of General Robert E. Lee

At the Georgia and Alabama tables sales were excellent. Special mention is due all who decorated the Georgia table with such excellent results. Mrs. Katherine Barbour Howard was the poular chairman of the Decorating Committee. Those who assigted here were Mrs. Stephen Beveridge, Mrs. D. C. Richardson, Mrs. Thompson, Misses Julie Yeager, Lillian and Pearl Gentry, Grace Schermerbern, Messrs. Hartman Morrisette and Thompson. Dolls, candy, sofa pillows, Ince handkerchiefs, fresh cakes and candy changed hands rapidly over the Georgia counter. Beautiful lace and fancy work were equally accoptable to purchasers at the Alabama table.

The Texas table was rejoicing over the sale of a luncheon set of Brazilian point lace, center-pieces, neckwear of all kinds, Mexican drawn work on linen and Indian moccasins. The beautiful horn chair, upholstered in green velvet, will be voted to the most popular club, the Westmoreland, Commonwealth, Virginia, Deep Run, Hermitage) Jefferson, McGill Union and others entering the contest.

The tobacco table was not only selling tobacco. It was displaying valuable relies in a lock of President Davis hair, framed, a picture of the Davis family, a George Washington pitcher, dating back to 1783, and many like valuable and beautiful things.

ACT ON PETITIONS TO COUNCIL FIRST

Finance Committee Will Not Hear Petitions from Saloon Men to Aldermen Yet.

The Finance Committee had a far shorter session last night than any one hought. The committees met in the inner office of the Commissioner of Revenue, while not less than 125 saloonseepers were on the outside waiting for a chance to press their petitions for a reduction of taxes. A number of dealers were accompanied by counsel. But the committee did not hear more than twenty-five, while the others waited theh

He said the would shortly hear applications for liquor licenses outside of the city. He said the company was opposed to the establishment of any saloons at the Reservoir Park terminal, as it would have a tendency to possibly encourage rowdyism and prevent ladies from frequenting the resort. Further, that it might tempt the employes of the company to drink between trips.

Just who or how many people desire to establish saloons at the Reservoir is not known, although it is thought that an effort is boing made to locate a place of this character near the Casino.

The committee, after hearing a petition from certain young ladies and gentlemen of Church Hill, decided to have constructed on a plot of ground in Chimborazo Park a public tennis court.

Mr. W. N. Howman, of the Stewart Iron Works, was present. He stated that all of the minor details at the new fall would be attended to, after which the committee decided to meet with the Finance Committee next Monday afternoon at 6 o'clock, when the question of payment for extras on the prison will be settled.

CADETS DEFEATED

The University Team Won by a Score of Seven to One.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April is.—
The University of Virginia defeated the Virginia Military Institute here this afternoon seven to one. The cadets scored their only run in the ninth, after two men were down. Couper reached first on a fielder's error, stole second, and talliled on Hill's single tole center field. In the fifth inning Probard, the Virginia twirler, had a finger on his left hand broken by a hot liner. While he officiated in the box, not a hit was secured off his delivery, and he had seven strikeouts to his credit. Cracraft, who succeeded him, allowed the visitors five hits. The cadet pitcher, Carneal, kept his hits well scattered, but received poor support. The features of the contest were the running catches of Johnston and Steames, and the sharp fielding of Stucky.
